What Is A PD&E Study?

A Project Development and Environment (PD&E) study is the formal process that develops and compares alternatives to determine a preferred action that meets project needs, while minimizing impacts to the social, natural, and physical environments. Engaging the public by sharing and receiving information is a key component of this process and is required by the National Environmental Policy Act.

The hearing is being held to allow the public to provide feedback on the improvements being proposed as part of this PD&E study.

Recommendation

FDOT has evaluated the various alternatives for this project. These alternatives were presented to the public for review and comment during the Virtual Project Update on Tuesday, May 26, 2020, at nwffroads.com.

Based on public input and the results of the environmental analysis conducted, FDOT is recommending the Preferred Alternative be advanced to the design phase, and ultimately constructed. The proposed typical sections, which are visual representations of the basic configuration of the proposed roadway, are provided above.

Proposed improvements for the Preferred Alternative include widening the roadway from four to six lanes on I-10 from west of U.S. 90 to west of S.R. 263 (Capital Circle NW) in Gadsden and Leon counties. New bridges will be installed on I-10 over U.S. 90 and over Midway Branch and Ochlockonee River. As one of the main east-west Strategic Intermodal System corridors in northern Florida, this project will provide consistency with other adjacent capacity projects, increase regional mobility, and provide system linkage necessary for efficient intra- and interstate movement of people and goods critical for Florida's economic development.

Proposed Improvements

The purpose of this project is to evaluate adding capacity on I-10 by widening the roadway. As a part of the PD&E process, build alternatives have been developed and evaluated for their impact to the built and natural environments and for their satisfaction of the project's Purpose and Need. Public input will be sought and considered throughout this process and each of the options will be evaluated against the no-build alternative. Proposed improvements include widening the roadway from four to six lanes on I-10 from west of U.S. 90 to west of Capital Circle NW in Gadsden and Leon counties. ## PROJECT GOALS

- 1
Improve Safety
- 2
Enhance Efficiency
- 3
Provide Additional Capacity

The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) is conducting two Project Development and Environment (PD&E) studies to analyze the existing characteristics, evaluate the community needs and impacts, and develop proposed conceptual improvements for two adjacent I-10 segments. These segments are:

➤ Interstate 10 (I-10) from west of U.S. 90 to west of State Road (S.R.) 263 (Capital Circle NW) in Gadsden and Leon Counties
FPID 222530-5-22-01 & 222530-6-22-01

This study will evaluate adding capacity on I-10 by widening the roadway from four to six lanes from west of U.S. 90 in Gadsden County to west of Capital Circle NW in Leon County. The total distance of this study is approximately 4.2 miles. Interchange improvements will be evaluated as necessary.

➤ I-10 from east of S.R. 261 (Capital Circle NE) to west of S.R. 59 (Gamble Road) in Leon and Jefferson Counties
FPID 406585-3-22-01

This study will evaluate adding capacity on I-10 by widening the roadway from four to six lanes from east of Capital Circle NE in Leon County to Gamble Road in Jefferson County. The total distance of this study is approximately 13.42 miles. Interchange improvements will be evaluated as necessary.

WHAT IS A PD&E STUDY?

A PD&E study is the formal process that develops and compares alternatives to determine a preferred action that meets project goals, while minimizing impacts to the social, natural and physical environments. Engaging the public by sharing and receiving information is a key component of this process and required by the National Environmental Policy Act.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

Over the next several months, FDOT will collect and analyze data to help compare the project alternatives. An Alternatives meeting and a public hearing will be held to provide interested persons the most current information on the project(s) and allow an additional opportunity for public input. The Alternatives public meeting is anticipated to be held in the spring of 2020. Additional details will be provided as they become available.

PD&E Schedule

Project Timeline

Interstate 10 at County Road 4 (Antioch Road) Interchange Public Hearing

Project Development & Environment (PD&E) Study
Financial Project IDs: 407918-3-22-01 and 407918-4-22-01

The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) is conducting a Project Development and Environment (PD&E) study to analyze the existing characteristics, evaluate the community needs and impacts, and develop proposed conceptual improvements for the Interstate 10 (I-10) at County Road (C.R.) 4 Interchange.

The intent of the study is to construct a new access point to I-10 that provides an alternative to the heavily-traveled State Road (S.R.) 85 corridor, allowing improved regional travel, improved operations through congestion relief, an accommodation of potential future growth in the corridor to support economic development, and an expansion of evacuation and emergency access routes. This project includes a new alignment for P.J. Adams Parkway, with a new bridge over I-10 and a Tight Urban Diamond Interchange (TUDI). This project also includes realignment and reconstruction of Arena Road to provide full connectivity with the existing Antioch Road. Bicycle and pedestrian accommodations will also be provided as part of this project.

What is a PD&E Study?

A Project Development and Environment (PD&E) study is the formal process that develops and compares alternatives to determine a preferred action that meets project needs, while minimizing impacts to the social, natural, and physical environments. Engaging the public by sharing and receiving information is a key component of this process and required by the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA).

This hearing is being held to present the preferred alternative and give the public an opportunity to provide comments concerning proposed improvements. There will be a formal presentation, along with maps, drawings and other study information on display. FDOT representatives will be available to discuss preferred alternative, proposed improvements, answer questions, and receive the comments.
